THE PISIS PARK FAVORED AT C. OF C. MEETING

The meeting at the Chamber of Commerce Tuesday evening to consider the purchase of the Pisis property was largely attended and much enthusiasm was evinced. M. J. Knox presided and called on a number for remarks. L. P. Behrens, president of the Sequoia Union High School board, expressed his belief that the school should acquire the land and fold of the needs of the high school. Mr. Behrens was followed by Roy W. Cloud, John MacBain, S. P. McCrea, Fred Drake, George A. Merrill, Mrs. A. S. Kalenborn, Charles Lambert and others, each of whom promised to work for the proposition.

A committee consisting of L. P. Behrens, Roy W. Cloud and John MacBain was appointed by the chairman to visit Mrs. Pisis and get her views as to price, option, etc., and report at the general district meeting which was called to meet in the supervisors' room at the court house this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

The meeting this afternoon has been called by the high school trustees to ascertain the desires of the people concerning the Pisis property. It is to be hoped that a large and representative gathering will be present at the court house this afternoon.

The committee waited upon Mrs. Pisis at her apartments at the St. Francis and talked the matter over with her. She expressed herself agreeable to give an option on the property for $80,000. No lower figure would be accepted.

PRATT-LOWE PRESERVING PLANT STARTS MONDAY

The Pratt-Lowe Preserving Company's new plant in Redwood City will start operations next Monday, notices to this effect having been sent out to 75 workers during the week requesting them to appear for work on that day. Everything in connection with the big plant has been constructed and finished under the able and efficient management of H. W. Klee, superintendent. During the week all the machinery has been thoroughly tested by him. Not a single hitch or trouble of any kind was experienced, so that everything is in readiness for the opening day. This shows the splendid efficiency of Mr. Klee. The floor space of the factory is 165x365 feet. The structural work is corrugated iron with a good concrete foundation. There is an abundance of fresh, cool air throughout the building, giving the help a pleasant environment for efficient service. The pay roll to begin with will be $850 weekly, rising gradually to a much higher sum as the supply of fruit increases. The starting of the cannery means much to Redwood City. The Pratt-Lowe Company is distributing big sums of money here among the merchants and workers. Everything that can be bought here is secured in Redwood City. With the Southern Pacific Railroad Company and the Dumbarton railroad with sidetracks to the door of the factory fruit may be brought from any section of the state and this is a big factor in the success of the institution. It has this advantage over other concerns. As the state highway runs close there can be a great many shipments to the cannery by truck. Also produce may be brought by water from the valleys of the state, giving even more shipping advantages. This plant is destined to be the main plant of the Pratt-Lowe Company, which has a number located in different parts of the state.

The Chamber of Commerce met on Wednesday evening to take action on the ordinance under consideration of the town trustees to raise the merchants' and business men's license. Out of 85 notices sent out by the secretary only ten merchants responded, so that no action was taken on the ordinance. At a recent meeting of the town council the matter of raising the license was referred to the Chamber of Commerce to formulate a rate that would be agreeable to all concerned. The ordinance will come up for passage at the meeting of the town trustees to be held next Monday evening.

BOY SCOUTS RETURN FROM ENJOYABLE OUTING

The Redwood City Boy Scouts, after a splendid time of two weeks in the wilds of the Santa Cruz mountains, will arrive home at 9 o'clock tomorrow evening. They will be welcomed by a large delegation of parents who will meet them at the train pulls into the "old home town." The scouts will break camp at 5 o'clock that evening an entral for Redwood City.

The scouts enjoyed a hike to Santa Cruz on Thursday and remained in that city until Friday, when they marched to camp at Ben Lomond. The meals served by Chief Chef Clement Shields were enjoyed by the scouts.

Everything at the camp was conducted with military discipline. There was a guardhouse for all those who disobeyed orders. The training at the camp will be beneficial to the youngsters.

Last Friday Scoutmaster Griffin received a donation of $10 from Attorney George C. Ross of this city with the following letter, which is being highly prized by the troop:

"Redwood City, Cal., July 8, 1920.

Messrs. Frank Griffin and Kendall Towne.—My Dear Scouts: Quite a good many years ago when I was about your age, I was always hungry—especially for fruit.

"Thinking perhaps you and your fellow scouts have my old feeling and as a little token of appreciation of the good work you are all doing, I am enclosing a check for $10 with the suggestion that you use same in treating the scouts to some fruit.

"You are aware, of course, that we old folks are relying upon you younger persons to become and be the leaders in all things good and worthy in our community, and personally I trust that among you will develop some of the fine big men of our state.

"With best wishes for a pleasant vacation and safe return, I remain, Yours sincerely,
"GEO. C. ROSS."

SALES BY LAMBERT & WALTER
H. de Young and wife and their charming daughters have arrived from Acampo and have taken possession of their pretty home on Eaton avenue which they recently purchased through Lambert & Walter.

Other sales were the former Almee Rice property on El Camino Real, which they sold last December to Abe Gutman and just resold to C. Corfari. Just off the Woodside road they sold for the account of Charles Pearson a nicely improved place to J. English of San Francisco. This property is one also resold by this enterprising firm, the Pearsons having bought this home 15 months ago for the sole reason of attempting to recover Mr. Pearson's health. Our remarkable climate did that, so he is returning to Seattle for several years before returning to California for good and will undoubtedly locate in this section.

To E. C. Kennison of San Francisco the improved property at 626 El Camino Real.

For account of Dr. H. H. Winkler to James Denny, the doctor's residence on Arch street, Dineer Park. This is another property sold and resold by them.

GAS RATES TO BE RAISED 10 PER CENT ON JULY 24

The Pacific Gas and Electric Company has been granted authority by the state railroad commission to advance its rates for gas to all consumers in central and northern California, the new rates to become effective on July 24.

The new schedule adds from 5 to 15 cents per thousand cubic feet to the prevailing price of gas to the consumer and is an average increase of about 10 per cent above the present schedule. The new rates are in addition to the 10 per cent surcharge authorized in June, 1918, being designed to cover the increased costs of production during the past two years.

The railroad commission based its action on recent increases in the price of fuel oil to the gas companies and increases in wages and salaries paid to gas company employees. In some districts no increase was granted because the additional expense of operation had been absorbed by the increased volume of business. In Oroville the increase is not to become effective until the gas service is improved.

E. W. Florence, manager of the Redwood district, has not as yet been advised as to just what the new rate will be for this locality. The present rate carries a maximum of $1.30 per thousand feet and it is safe to assume that the new rate will be around $1.40.

On July 1 the railroad commission granted authority to increase the rates for electricity 15 per cent, which increase took effect July 10. Unless otherwise directed by the railroad commission the rates effective before the increase will be restored on April 10, 1921.

PESKY WHALE FIGHT

NEAR PESCADERO

To J. W. Crosby and H. V. Rippon, employees of the Ocean Shore railroad, belongs the honor of killing an immense striped whale on the beach just north of Pescadero the forepart of this week. Crosby and Rippon had been in Santa Cruz looking after the company's business and were hiking home via the railroad. Passing near the beach they noticed the sea monster flapping wildly in the wet sand several feet from the water's edge. The men armed themselves with some heavy pieces of ties that were lying beside the tracks and made an attack on the floundering whale. It was not until both men had been rolled over several times by the huge tail that the fatal blow was struck. "It was a whale of a battle," Crosby said after he had arrived home.

E. A. HAYES FOR CONGRESS

The citizens of Redwood City have petitioned E. A. Hayes to become a candidate for congress in the eighth district. His reply is awaited with interest. His many friends here believe he can be elected and thus restore the district to the Republican column. Having served the district in Washington for fifteen years he would be in a position to render it good service when he returned. He is not anxious to make the run, but if his friends persist in his running he may make the race against Hugh Hersman, the Democratic candidate. Arthur M. Free late yesterday afternoon announced that he would become a candidate for congress from the eighth district. He was formerly district attorney of Santa Clara county. He has a splendid record as an official and will make a formidable candidate.

Mr. Free in a statement said: "If I find there is such a demand for me as would justify my circulating petitions for the candidacy, I will make the fight for congressman from the eighth congressional district on the Republican ticket, but I do not intend to enter the race until I am sure of sufficient support. I have been approached by several committees representing different interests in the valley who have urged my candidacy and have promised to show a real demand for me as a candidate. These committees are making a thorough canvass of the situation at the present time.

"I received a delegation from San Mateo county yesterday which urged me to get into the running in strong terms. I have received letters from Ventura and Monterey counties also, guaranteeing support from these districts."

WOODSIDE ITEMS

William Byrnes, the scientific farmer, has had a tremendous crop this season and will make big profits. He harvested 700 tons of hay which he sold at $32.50 a ton and 5,000 sacks of oats which were disposed of at $3.25 a sack. Mr. Byrnes is a shrewd business man as well as a farmer and knows when to sell his crop in order to secure the best prices.

Candidate for United States Senator

EKWARD TO RUN AGAIN

Assemblyman Frank L. Ekward was here on Monday preparing plans for circulating his nominating petition and launching his campaign for re-election. He will have no opposition this year. This will make his third term in the legislature. His experience will place him in a position to do much for the county. A new man could do very little for the district the first term.

Ekward has done many good things for San Mateo county, among them being the lowering of the commutation rates and the directing of the campaign for the $1,250,000 issue of bonds for good roads which has proved such a benefit to the county. He is today one of the staunch supporters of the anti-annexation league, having framed the bill at the last legislature to prevent San Francisco from annexing San Mateo county without the consent of the people. He is also the author of the motor vehicle act.

REPUBLICANS OF S. F. ENDORSE
SAMUEL M. SHORTRIDGE

Endorsement of Samuel M. Shortridge, Republican candidate for United States senator, by the Republican County Central Committee of San Francisco has given added impetus to his campaign which has already met with widespread popular favor and is gaining ground daily in all parts of the state.

The addition of San Francisco to the long list of Republican county committees that have endorsed Mr. Shortridge is expected to result in more similar endorsements as soon as the party organizations are called together.

Among the county central committees that have already pledged their support to Shortridge are San Diego, Solano, Yolo, San Mateo, Siskiyou, Nevada, Imperial, Lake and El Dorado.

The San Francisco resolution was unanimously adopted Thursday evening after a fight to have William Kent endorsed was lost on a record vote of 35 to 2. The resolution, which urges support of Shortridge at the August primary election and the November general election, also endorses the national ticket, Harding and Coolidge, and Representatives Julius Kahn and John I. Nolan for re-election. The resolution reads:

Resolved: That we pledge our loyal support to the candidacy and election to the office of United States Senator of that able, upright, lifelong supporter of Republican principles and American ideals, Samuel M. Shortridge.

R. M. J. Armstrong offered the Shortridge resolution. W. S. Scott made the fight for Kent and was charged during the meeting with being a paid worker of Kent headquarters. Armstrong reminded Scott that when he wasn't on the payroll of the opposition candidate he was out working for Shortridge. All of the strength in the committee favorable to Senator Hiram Johnson went to Shortridge and several members who at the last meeting had favored the endorsement of Herbert Hoover instead of Johnson for president also lined up for Shortridge.

In presenting the Shortridge resolution, Armstrong said every county committee in the state that had met recently had endorsed Shortridge's candidacy. He attacked Kent as a "Wilson Democrat" and an ardent supporter of other Wilsonian doctrines opposed to Republicanism.

"I cannot conceive of any Republican voting for Kent," said Armstrong.

After the Kent resolution had been defeated, the Shortridge endorsement was voted without a dissenting vote. Commenting on the committee's action and Armstrong's statement, the San Francisco Chronicle says:

"There are plenty of Republicans who share Armstrong's opinion and are as much amazed as his colleagues on the committee were that anyone whose attitude has been one of constant hostility to Republican policies should seek the endorsement of a Republican organization or the votes of Republicans. The victory will be won this year by electing men in harmony with the policies formulated by the Chicago convention and not by putting forward candidates whose records prove that they are antagonistic to them."

SPLENDID CANDIDATES

Senator Harding possesses just those vital qualities of mind and heart necessary today and in the time just ahead. His poise of mind, his soundness of judgment, his hold on fundamentals, his appreciation of the needs of today and of tomorrow, his love of the people from whom he came and of whom he is one, and his faith in them; his magnificent grasp of large affairs, his great native ability and his training in statesmanship, his regard for the opinion of others, his experience and success in the handling of men, his proper appreciation of his country's position as a responsible factor in the world's future, but with the fullest realization of the absolute importance of our own supreme nationalism, his sterling Americanism, his righteous character and manhood, and withal his thorough humanness, all qualify him in the most exceptional degree for the tremendous responsibilities which will soon be his. He will make a splendid candidate and a great president. The country will love him, honor him, trust him and follow him, just as all who know him love and trust him, and the world will honor him.

Too, in Governor Coolidge we have a candidate for vice-president that measures up to every requirement of a presidential candidate. Fortunately indeed is the country.

OLNEY'S CANDIDACY IS ENDORSED BY JUDGES

The candidacy of Justice Warren Olney of the supreme court for election at the November election meets with general approval of the judiciary of the state, who have been impressed with the ability and learning displayed by Justice Olney upon the bench.

Justice Olney was appointed by Governor Stephens to succeed former Justice Max C. Sloss, who resigned to enter private practice. He is a candidate for election to the unexpired term. Among the eminent jurists who have endorsed Justice Olney's candidacy are:

William C. Van Fleet, United States district judge, San Francisco.

Benjamin F. Bledsoe, United States district judge, Los Angeles.

F. M. Angelotti, chief justice, supreme court of California, San Francisco.

Lucien Shaw, associate justice, supreme court of California, San Francisco.

William P. Lawlor, associate justice, supreme court of California, San Francisco.

Curtis D. Wilbur, associate justice, supreme court of California, San Francisco.

Thomas J. Lennon, associate justice, supreme court of California, San Francisco.

William H. Waste, presiding justice district court of appeal, division 1, First district, San Francisco.

Frank H. Kerrigan, associate justice, district court of appeal, division 1, First district, San Francisco.

William H. Langdon, presiding justice district court of appeal, division 2, First district, San Francisco.

Justice district court of appeal, division 2, First district, San Francisco.

THE "FRONT PORCH" CAMPAIGN

Soon after his nomination at Chicago Senator Harding announced his intention of following McKinley's course and conducting his campaign from the front porch of his home in Marion, Ohio. Tremendous pressure has been put upon him to alter his program so as to include addresses in at least a few of the big cities, but after much consideration and consultation with his party leaders he has reiterated his determination to abstain from any swings around the circle and to confine himself to prepared statements and addresses issued from his home.

"The country is calling for deliberate utterances," says Senator Harding, "and that is why the front-porch method appeals so strongly to me." In making that statement the candidate touches the very essence of the sentiment that will bring him victory at the polls. The people are tired of the hysterical campaigning and the hysterical government that has marked our history for seven years, and that has brought the nation so close to disaster. They hail with enthusiasm the opportunity presented by the change in administration to return once more to the conservative, deliberate government under which the country prospered throughout the decades preceding the Wilson accession. Senator Harding is true to the spirit of his party and answers the longing of the people when he frames his course thus early along "deliberate" lines.

"The democratic campaign of 1916 was emotional to a degree, and the democratic administration, particularly that of the last four years, has been a sustained appeal to the passions and sentimentality of the people. Sentiment won over reason in 1916, when everybody yearned for unbroken peace, but at the same time knew at heart that war was inevitable. Since then men and women have become very canny. Disillusioned at every turn by a long train of broken pledges on the part of the Wilson regime, they have learned to submit to logic every new doctrine that is presented for their determination. In the coming campaign sensational appeals will fall upon barren ground, while the candidate who confines himself to appeals to the intelligence of the voters will win their confidence and support.

That is what Senator Harding proposes to do. Deliberately prepared public statements on the issues before the country, alternated with addresses from his porch to visiting delegations from various organizations or localities who may call upon him, will very likely be his summer program. By so doing the people will receive much more specific and definite information on what they may expect from a Harding administration of the government than they would from a series of extemporaneous speeches at various points, which would be largely repetitions of each other. Again, his utterances will be free from rowdy interruptions which so frequently mar political gatherings in public places, and serve only to lower the dignity of the meetings with no compensating benefits whatever.

Never in the history was the country more prosperous, more contented and more respected abroad than during the McKinley administration. It is equally certain that never before was the nation so financially burdened, so torn with conflicting emotions, and so cordially disliked by the rest of the world as now, after seven years of Wilsonism. The adoption by Senator Harding of McKinley's campaign policy is the first, although but one, of the many similarities that will mark the presidential careers of the two men.

Formation of voluntary organizations to support the campaign of Samuel M. Shortridge, Republican candidate for United States senator, is being reported daily from all parts of the state. The two latest are in Folsom City and the Mission district. The new Mission district Shortridge-for-Senator Club is headed by George M. Rudebeck with Andrew Dalziel secretary.

The Folsom City Shortridge-for-Senator Club has E. E. Mowrey as chairman and Max V. Mareland as secretary and includes voters from the nearby communities of Natoma, Fair Oaks, Orangeville and Represa.

Similar organizations have started campaigning in Sausalito, Ocean Park, Venice, San Juan and Redondo Beach during the past few days and many more are being organized in Southern California.

Samuel M. Shortridge was perhaps the first public figure in California to express publicly his disapproval of the Smuts-Wilson league of nations. Commonwealth club of San Francisco on May 19, 1919; quoting Washington, and warned America to keep out of Europe.

Samuel M. Shortridge's father helped nominate Abraham Lincoln back in 1860 at the second Republican convention. Like Lincoln's, Sam's Republicanism has never been doubted.

The voter doesn't need to accept Samuel M. Shortridge "unsight and unseen." He has expressed himself definitely on every public question of the day.

PETITION FOR ROAD BONDS

Arthur Thompson, an employee of the state highway commission, yesterday filed the initiative petition to be voted upon at the November election raising the rate of interest on the $40,000,000 bonds voted two years ago for road improvements and construction from 4 to 6 per cent per annum. It contained 650 names. The petition is to be filed in every county in the state and will contain 54,000 names.

DIVIDED OUT OF MATRIMONY

Judge Beasley on Thursday granted a final decree of divorce to Mrs. Gladys John from her husband, Joseph John. The interlocutory decree was granted June 19, 1919, on the grounds of extreme cruelty. R. H. McGowan was the attorney for the plaintiff. Mrs. John was one of the high diving girls at the exposition in 1915.

NEW DETENTION HOME

The old dwelling formerly leased by Sheriff M. Sheehan and owned by the county is being remodeled and repaired and is to be used as a detention home by the county. There are 12 rooms in the building. Wayward and neglected children will be confined there. The old jail that was used for this purpose will be used as an emergency hospital and clinic. A matron for the new detention home will soon be appointed by the board of supervisors.

SAFETY FOR FLYERS

Flying will be made absolutely safe by a new parachute device that has been tried out successfully by Walter T. Varney at his Redwood City field. Varney and his associates have made jumps at altitudes of from 5,000 to 10,000 feet and in each case the parachute has opened with a drop of less than 30 feet.

The new parachute is made of the lightest silk and with its equipment weighs but six pounds. It is strapped to the back of the aviator or passenger at all times while he is in the air and absolutely assures a safe landing in any emergency. The speed of the parachute is never more than five miles an hour and consequently it requires no skill on the part of the passenger in maneuvering.

The new Varney parachute will be demonstrated publicly for the first time at the aviation meet to be held Saturday and Sunday this week at San Jose. Louis Muller, head salesman of the Varney company, will do the demonstrating. Varney will send a fleet of ships to the San Jose meet, including a Bristol and several Lincoln standard planes, all of which will be equipped with the new parachute device.

This parachute, unlike the many others that have been used in connection with aviation, makes it safe to jump even from a height of 100 feet or under, as it is guaranteed to open within 30 feet. Most of the recent mishaps in flying have occurred at altitudes under 500 feet and several fatalities would have been averted had the new equipment been used.

CELEBRATES 81ST BIRTHDAY

Mrs. John Kearse celebrated her 81st birthday last Sunday at her home on Chestnut street. All her children, grandchildren and great grandchildren were with her at the birthday dinner. In the center of the table was a huge birthday cake, suitably inscribed to the hostess, surrounded by 81 lighted candles.

In the center of the cake were two flags, the American and the other the flag of Ireland. During the day many friends from here and San Francisco called to congratulate Mrs. Kearse and to wish her many happy returns of the day.

Mrs. Kearse has resided in Redwood City nearly 53 years, there being at the time of her arrival only two or three houses between the railroad station and her house and only two trains a day, one going each way.

WOODSIDE NOTES

The Spring Valley Company has sold lots 42, 43, 44, 45, 46 and 47 in block "C," Portola Woods, to Caroline Houser of San Francisco. According to the federal stamps on the deed the sum of $10,000 was paid for the property. The instrument was filed in the office of Recorder T. C. Rice yesterday. Mrs. Houser intends to erect a palatial residence at once.

Appreciating the tremendous importance of the fruit, farming, packing and livestock interests of California, the Bank of Italy continues to place its resources and energies at the disposal of these worthy industries.

The raisin growers of Fresno County, the prune orchardists of the Santa Clara Valley, the dairymen and alfalfa ranchers of the great San Joaquin country, the vegetable growers of the rich Stockton delta section, the lima bean and sugar beet growers of the Ventura and Oxnard districts, and the citrus fruit men of Los Angeles County now depend to a large extent on the co-operation of this bank for the movement of their immense crops.

Those who produce from the soil are invited to use the facilities of this large statewide institution. We specialize in—"backing up agriculture"—in solving the financial problems pertaining to the farming industry.
